Why Accredit Your Race?

Accrediting your race with the Horse Nations Indian Relay Council (HNIRC) provides an opportunity to enhance visibility, attract more participants, and promote the rich tradition of Indian Relay Racing on a broader scale. Here's why you should accredit your race:

1. Massive Publicity and Reach

- Social Media Reach: HNIRC reaches over 900,000 people every month on social media. By accrediting your race, it will gain access to a vast, engaged audience of Indian relay fans and teams across the country.
- Promotion Across Channels: Your race will be promoted on our website, social media platforms (including Facebook, where we have over 44,000 fans), and through posters and other promotional materials.
- Event Calendar Inclusion: Your accredited race will be added to the official HNIRC race schedule, reaching more teams and fans.

2. Custom Poster and Marketing Support

- Professional Design: Our graphic design team will create a custom poster specifically for your race, showcasing the event in a visually appealing way.
- Wide Distribution: The custom poster will be circulated digitally to our large online following. You will also receive a digital copy to use in your own marketing efforts, both online and in print.

3. Elevating Your Winning Team

- Paid Entry into the Championship of Champions: The winning team from each accredited race will have their entry fees paid to the prestigious Championship of Champions.

- Champion Recognition: Your winning team will receive special recognition, including a spot on Champion Row at the Championship of Champions and a feature in the commemorative event program.

4. Be Part of a Prestigious Network

- Accredited races are part of the HNIRC Tour of Champions, a national and international network of relay races that culminates in the year-end Championship of Champions in Casper, Wyoming.
- Accreditation adds prestige to your race, attracting top-tier teams and generating excitement among fans.

5. Women's Indian Relay Team

- Accrediting your Women's Indian Relay team provides the same exciting opportunity to participate at the Championship of Champions, including a paid entry for the winning women's team and their inclusion on Champion Row. Promote the growing tradition of women's relay racing on a grand stage!

6. Network with other Race Hosts During Championship of Champions

- Meet and Greet Brunch-September 20th 9:00AM Casper, Wyoming Ramkota Hotel
